1. Every consignment of merchandise shall be accompanied by waybill on which shall be correctly stated:
  1. Full name and address of shipper and consignee
  2. Such particulars as the Authorities may require of nature, weight (inclusive of packing), number of packages, articles or merchandise handed to the company and properly received for. If such particulars are written other than in English the company shall not be responsible for any translation thereof.
  - 2.1. The shipper shall be fully responsible for the correctness of all particulars supplied under conditions (1) above and hereby authorizes the company, its servants and agents to make on behalf and at the risk of the shipper in respect of the goods so consigned such declarations to the customs or other government offices in accordance with the particulars so supplied. The shipper shall undertake to keep the company its servants and agents safe and harmless from and indemnify each of them in respect of any prosecution loss expenditure for legal fees or otherwise or damage arising out of the incorrectness or insufficiency of the particulars so supplied or arising out of any declaration made in reliance on such particulars.
  - 2.2. If the goods be stopped in transit refused or delivery not taken, the cost of any additional carriage, carriage, storage and/or any other consequential service will be charged to and forthwith payable by the shipper.
3. Any instruction or business accepted by the company may at the absolute discretion of the company be fulfilled by the company itself by its own servants performing part or all of the relevant services or by the company employing or instructing or entrusting the goods to others on such conditions as such others may stipulate to perform part or all of the services, but entirely without prejudice to the rights, powers or immunities which the company enjoy under these conditions.
4. Subject to express instructions in writing given by the company, the company reserves to itself absolute discretion as to the means route and procedure to be followed in the handling, storage and transportation of goods. Further, if in the opinion of the company, it is at any stage necessary or desirable in the customer's interests to depart from those instructions, the company shall be at liberty to do so. The goods may also be conveyed or their conveyance so arranged for separately, if any, by the company at its discretion when the company deems fit as part of a larger package or consignment.
5. Pending forwarding or delivery, goods may be warehoused or otherwise stored at any place or places at the sole discretion of the company at the sole risk and expense of the shipper and/or consignee.
6. Except where the company is instructed in writing to pack the Goods, the shipper warrants that all goods have been properly and sufficiently packed and/or prepared.
7.
  - 7.1. The company shall not be responsible for loss, damage, nondelivery or misdelivery to a consignment or any part thereof except upon proof that the same occurred whilst the goods were in the actual custody of the company and under its control and that such loss, damage, nondelivery or misdelivery was due to the willful neglect or default of the company or its servants or agents provided notice must be given in writing within seven (7) days after delivery.
  - 7.2. The company shall be discharged from all liability under this truck waybill unless suit is brought within 1 year after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.
